

Grayden Paul Park

Grayden Paul Park is located on Front Street directly across from Town Hall and the National Park Service Beaufort Welcome Center at the end of Pollock Street, 700 Front Street. This park is on Taylor's Creek and overlooks the Rachel Carson Reserve. There is a bulkhead, an elevated dock, a floating dinghy dock and a gazebo. This is the primary dinghy dock access to Town for boats anchored in Taylor's Creek. There is a walk-in boat launching area, a kayak storage rack (available by permit). There is a bike rack and the access to the Welcome Center provides air conditioned restroom facilities.
